INTRODUCTION.

The eighth volume of the Triennial Catalogue of Sanskrit Manuscripts contains the description of manuscripts acquired or restored during the triennium 1931-32 to 1933-34 and is prepared on the same plan as that of the first seven volumes. The numbering of the manuscripts and the pagination of the volume are in continuation of those of the seventh volume. A subject index, an author index and a general index are prefixed to the Volume.

Attention is drawn below to a few of the more important works described in this volume.

VĀKYAPADIYA—R. 5543.

This is a well known treatise on the philosophy of grammar by the talented author Bhartrhari. This famous work was till recently known to the world in a metrical form and commentaries on the work by Puṇyarāja and Helārāja extended only to this portion. Scholars were put to confusion in their attempts to reconcile some prose passages said to be from this work and quoted by Mammata and other authors. But the recovery of this manuscript will solve this difficulty as it contains prose passages also explaining the matter contained in the short verses. This procedure is in consonance with the custom prevalent among authors till about the 14th century A. D. The first Kāṇḍa of this work published by Śrī Charudevasastri of Lahore with Vṛṣabhadeva's commentary is mainly based on this manuscript.

NĀṬYAŚĀSTRAVĀRTIKAM—R. 5548.

This is a metrical treatise on Bharata's Nāṭyaśāstra and this is also called Sarasvatīhṛdayabhūṣaṇa and Sarasvatīhṛdayālankārahāra in the colophons. The author is variously mentioned in different colophons found in the manuscript as Mānyapati, Nāthapati, and Nānyadeva. But in all of them he is mentioned as the king of Mithilā and as possessing the surnames 'Dharmāloka and Sāman-tādhipati'. The author seems to be called Rājanārāyaṇa from the colophons at the end of Tānādhyāya (pages 21 and 36 of the manuscript). This work mentions Dattila, Devarāja, Māgha, Mataṅga, Mithilācārya and Abhinava-gupta among authors and Pāṇinīśikṣā, Nāradyaśikṣā, Nāradyaśikṣāvivarāṇaṭikā, Bhaddesī, and Kālikāpurāṇa among works. Evidence is lacking to identify Nānyadeva the author of this work with the Nānyadeva, commentator on the Mālatīmādhava.

TARKATILAKAM—R. 5657.

This is an original treatise on the Nyāya system of Philosophy. Though all the dogmas of the system have been elaborately dealt with and established conclusively by many previous authors, the author refutes in this work the objections raised by opponents who have come in subsequently. About twelve topics of controversy, embracing the various schools of Indian Philosophy are discussed at some length by the author.

The author Śrīnātha, states that he wrote the work at the instance of king Ahobilanātha who was a pious devotee of God Narasiṃha enshrined and worshipped at Ahobila in Kurnool district.

SĀHITYAMĪMĀMSĀ—R. 5599.

The Sāhityamīmāṃsā is a compendium of well known works on rhetoric and poetics. It is in a simple poetical form extending to eight chapters. It is to be noted that in this work some vedic passages are quoted as illustrations.

NR̥TTARATNĀVALĪ.—R. 5659.

Nr̥ttaratnāvalī is another metrical treatise on the science of Indian dance. This work closely follows

Bharata's Nāṭyaśāstra. According to the colophon the author of the work is Mahārājādhirāja Gaṇapatideva gajasādhana Jayasenāpati. From the references in the work it is evident that the author Jayana was taught the science of dance by Guṇḍamātya at the instance of King Gaṇapatideva and wrote the work in order to please the King. (See pages 6 and 7 of the manuscript).
